Abstract

In less than 2 months, the artificial intelligence (AI) program ChatGPT has become a cultural sensation. It is freely accessible through a web portal created by the tool's developer, OpenAI. The program—which automatically creates text based on written prompts—is so popular that it's likely to be "at capacity right now" if you attempt to use it. When you do get through, ChatGPT provides endless

Welcome to the Guide for Residents!

The goals of this guide are to:

- Provide a convenient listing of essential resources services used in clinical practice and research.
- Help users access these essential resources through the Calder Library.

This guide is intended for UM/JMH faculty and staff as well as trainees during their internships, residencies, and fellowships.

You may navigate this guide by using the links on the Table of Contents at the left or by using the Tabs on top of each page.

The screenshot shows the University of Miami Libraries website. The top navigation bar includes 'LIBRARIES' with the tagline 'Transforming lives OPENING WORLDS', and links for 'ASK A LIBRARIAN' and 'ACCOUNTS'. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with categories: 'FIND & READ', 'RESEARCH & WRITE', 'LEARN & CREATE', 'SPACES & TECHNOLOGY', 'LIBRARIES & COLLECTIONS', and 'ABOUT'. The main header features the 'LOUIS CALDER MEMORIAL LIBRARY' logo and search options for 'uSearch', 'PubMed', and 'DynaMed'. A search bar is present with a dropdown menu set to 'Everything' and a 'Search' button. Below the search bar, the page title 'Training & Workshops' is displayed. A blue callout box contains the text: 'Looking for statistics and research software training? Visit Data & Visualization Services Workshops'. The main content area is divided into sections: 'Librarian Consultations' (with a paragraph about finding authoritative information and scheduling consultations via Zoom) and 'Group Training'. A note on the right states: 'Note: Calder Library resources, consultations, and training are free to authorized users with a valid UM/JMH e-mail address.' Below the note is a link for 'View Access Privileges' and instructions to email for group training sessions. A left sidebar menu lists: 'ABOUT', 'RESEARCH', 'SERVICES' (highlighted), 'FAQS', 'FORMS', 'NEWS', and 'REMOTE ACCESS'. Contact information at the bottom left includes the phone number (305) 243-6403, email reference@med.miami.edu, and a link for Maps & Directions.
